Introducing our New GQ Talk Forums

<https://www.gammill.com/forum/>

Welcome to GQ Talk, Gammill's Online Customer Community. We invite you to join us in sharing ideas, making new friends and visiting with old ones.

Please take some time to look around and make yourself at home. It is our desire, here at Gammill, to offer a warm encouraging environment for everyone.

- For Statler Owners, the Quiltropolis Forum is no longer active. Adding your Statler Controller # allows you to also participate in the Statler Forum.
- Access to the Gammill Forum will be automatic. Once you've registered and been approved, you can then login and start sharing with the Quilting Community.
- If you need assistance along the way, there is a convenient Help Tab to assist you. Also included is a Search Tab for finding specific content.

Thank you for participating in our New GQ Talk Forums and helping us better connect with you and our Customers! Your frequent review and posts are appreciated!

Product News Bulletin - Statler Stitcher

Effective immediately, Gammill will be offering two new mounts for the Statler Stitcher.

CPU Holder Side Mount

The newly designed holder connects to the side of the table for greater ease of turning the unit on and off. This unit raises the CPU 5 inches from the floor and it extends about 8 inches on the side of the machine.

Part Number: S-CPU Side MNT $100 per unit plus shipping and handling

Controller Holder Rear Mount

There is also a newly designed rear mount holder for the controller. The newly designed holder connects to the back middle of the table. This unit raises the controller about 8 inches from the floor and does not extend beyond the table. The rear mount holder will not interfere with a loaded batting bar.

Part Number: S-1080145 $100 per unit plus shipping and handling

What's New in DVDs?

Designs with Lines by Pam Clarke - Hand Guided Quilters

Backgrounds Designs & Shapes: Half Square Triangles and

Flying Geese

Triangles will never be a problem again after you watch this DVD. Discover how to fill up large triangles, learn how to do a free-hand Feathered Heart using the basic 8 line stencil and how to stitch a chevron type of border with only one stop from side to side. Pam will show you how to read Flying Geese type blocks to make continuous along with how to make a full feather border.

DVD with Workbook included $30.00

Borderlines

Using the workbook that is provided with this DVD, draw with Pam as she shows you how to create several border designs. Learn how to get around corners and three corner techniques that have you finishing your quilt faster than you thought possible with very little marking. Using Pam's straight line stencils as a reference, gain the confidence to outstanding borders to wow your customers, friends and relatives. DVD with Workbook included $30.00

Fearless Beginnings to Longarm Quilting

Discover the secrets to smooth quilting and basic quilting designs in this DVD using the free-motion side of your machine. This video is designed to save time and to gain confidence. Pam Clarke, a Longarm Quilter since 1988, will guide you in a step by step, no fuss method. Learn how to mark a quilt top, several background stitches and the 7 basic quilting designs. And with a little bit of practice you will be finishing that quilt top faster than you thought possible DVD with Workbook included $30.00

Background Designs and Shapes

The Background Designs and Shapes book can be used with the long-arm and the home machine. These are my favorite and most used designs for background quilting; these designs also work well in borders and as an all over design across a quilt top. DVD with Workbook included $30.00
